

GUEST OPINION

GUEST OPINION

Ten words that need to go

Allan M. Heller Thursday, January 23, 2025 3:45 am

Periodically, the venerable Oxford English Dictionary selects words to add to its vast repertoire of entries. Here are 10 that ought to be removed.

GUEST OPINION

The case for the carbon fee and dividend

Jenna Pontecorvo Thursday, January 23, 2025 3:30 am

Global warming has been a highlighted topic in the news for a long time now and has been causing so much damage in recent years. Climate change is a devastating new reality that a lot of people now have to face.

GUEST OPINION

What has happened to Route 611?

Charlie Reichner Thursday, January 23, 2025 3:15 am

I moved to Nockamixon Township in 1973 and I have watched Route 611 deteriorate over the last 50 years.

GUEST OPINION

The Futility of Ethics

Charles D. Dern Thursday, January 23, 2025 3:15 am

Two events of late 2024 caused me to revisit the problem of ethics — teaching an undergraduate ethics class and the murder of a health care insurance executive in New York City.

GUEST OPINION

With ceasefire, Israel becomes a geopolitical pawn

Amy Neustein Wednesday, January 22, 2025 4:06 pm

The U.S.-brokered “dizzying deal” — secured by fiat over consensus — struck an incontrovertible blow at the Jewish community this month.

GUEST OPINION

Q&A with Elise Coby: Rising journalist

Lauryn Green Thursday, January 16, 2025 4:15 am

Quakertown native Elise Coby is a 2023 graduate of High Point University's Journalism program with a minor in Environmental Science. High Point is a 100-year-old private university in North Carolina.

GUEST OPINION

Empowering women through early detection, access to care

Maria Montoro Edwards Thursday, January 16, 2025 4:00 am

January is Cervical Cancer Awareness Month, a time to reflect on the importance of early detection, education, and access to care in the fight against cervical cancer.