

Biden Says Bibi 'Prepared To Do About Anything To Get Hostages Back'

U.S. President Joe Biden said in an interview with Time published on Tuesday that Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu was under "enormous pressure" to forge a hostages-for-ceasefire deal with Hamas.

"The last offer Israel made was very generous in terms of who [Palestinian prisoners] they'd be willing to release, what they'd give in return, et cetera. Bibi [Netanyahu] is under enormous pressure on the hostages... and so he's prepared to do about anything to get the hostages back," said Biden.

Freeing the hostages is the main reason the White House is pushing for a ceasefire, Biden said.

Asked about the condition of the eight U.S. citizens held hostage by Hamas in Gaza, Biden said, "We believe there are those that are still

Continued on p.2

Marching In Support Of Israel

Students from Rosenbaum Yeshiva of North Jersey in Bergen County marching in Sunday's Celebrate Israel Parade on Fifth Avenue in Manhattan. 45,000-plus came out to see dozens of schools, shuls, organizations and politicians marching along the route in the annual parade, amidst heightened police presence and security. (Courtesy RYNI)

In This Week's Issue:

- An 'Extra' Ten for Shavout 2024.....8
- Stop Being Defensive About Our Right to a Homeland..11
- Making the Grade (It's Not About the Numbers).....14
- Chabad Shliach Serves 5 Brooklyn Schools.....16
- Collecting Jewish History: Jewish Horse Thieves.....62

Alan T. Rothenberg, Esq.

5.0 ★★★★★ 1000+ Google reviews

The Power Behind Our 5.0 Rating

Fidelity